

GARY POLONSKY

Food for Thought

Decemeber 1 — January 2

Food for Thought runs December 1 – January 2, 2020 at TAG Gallery, 5458 Wilshire Blvd, Los Angeles, CA 90036. TAG is open 11am-5pm, Tue-Sat.

“Despite the sadness and turmoil that we are experiencing, I’ve found that my artwork has a very grounding effect on my sanity,” explains TAG artist Gary Polonsky. “The food series allows me continue my exploration of what makes us ‘normal’.”

Breaking from the flat surface of traditional painting, Gary brings 3D fine art to a new level of depth and focus in his “food” series. His work combines paint and canvas with balsawood, styrofoam and wire-mesh to create larger-than-life sculptural constructions.

“I hope my current work will be a small, and tasty reminder of those simple pleasures,” encourages Gary. “Enjoy!”

About TAG Artist Gary Polonsky: Gary Polonsky’s fine art models bring 3D painting to a new level of depth and focus, moving beyond the flat surface. Gary currently shows at TAG Gallery in Los Angeles. The artist grew up in Los Angeles. He attended Santa Monica City College and Art Center College of Design where he received a bachelor’s degree in Fine Art.

About the Gallery: TAG is a fine art gallery located on Museum Row in Los Angeles, California. Founded in 1993, the gallery represents award-winning contemporary Southern California artists working in all mediums and styles.
