Mind, Memories, & Hips opens September 22, 2021 at TAG Gallery, 5458 Wilshire Blvd, Los Angeles, CA 90036. TAG is open 1pm-7pm, Wed-Sun

I am usually inspired by my memories, live models, chairs, phrases of the day, anger, photographs of people or patterns, or bad news. I search for forms that interest my eye or my heart. I love color. I approach each painting with creative destruction: changing and turning objects, figures and symbols into complex color fields. Try, and again ...until some resulting pattern of shape and color pleases my eye: in some way "balanced", large to small, dark to light, intense ...but not all over, color and shape puzzles.

About the Artist: Susan Price paints with acrylic and or oil sticks on paper/canvas. Her abstract forms coming from a figurative base are often times may or may not be visible. Letting the audience dictate the open interpretation. Her work has been featured in shows at Barnsdall Park, LA Municipal Gallery, Gallery 825, Laemmle Theaters, and different venues via Women Painters West. Price has studied art formally since 1963 at Pitzer College, UCLA, UCLA Extension, with an emphasis on private workshops. She is involved as a member with Los Angeles Art Association/Gallery 825, Women Painters West, and FIG Gallery.

About the Gallery: TAG is a fine art gallery located on Museum Row in Los Angeles, California. Founded in 1993, the gallery represents award-winning contemporary Southern California artists working in all mediums and styles.
